This is the text conversation I just had with Jennifer:

I had a good convo with Tony. As per the usual, YH misreported what Tony did. He is sending me the info he sent their intern/reporter.

The AG is expected to rule Wed Gov needs to make some decisions before then. I hear David Byrne is involved doing some legal research.

Yes--Tony says ALDOT is going to lose in the opinion. Gov can come out and say he is ordering ALDOT to change policies. Absolutely.

We can come out with that today as far as I'm concerned.

I said we can come out today... I just don't want to lose on this topic like we lost the lowering the flag story the other day...

Or whenever you feel comfortable..

I agree

I am grateful for how well u prepared for us. I used to resent the money but now I'm grateful. The paper for cash value was on table. So I thought u were cashing it out. Have u formed 501c4?

Not yet but I am looking into it like many other governors

It is an advocacy organization

I have Heath looking at it

Will u fund it yourself?0

No

Are u hiring someone then? Are u cashing in life insurance?

It's not fair to planners

Are you talking about someone specific

U know who. Did u cash in life insurance to fund 501c4?

I have no plans to cash in life insurance . I worked all my life so you would be taken care of.i will always take care of you. I'm glad we gave luke 20%

You are trying

Only to hold it together

I will never be the same again

I have no love left

So it's hard to get it back together

I go back to what you said this morning.

Before church

What?

Need to call David

That you won't allow others to rob you of your joy. Because you have a serious job to do. And I said: It really doesn't matter what others say or what others want. Or demand you be. You can only be who God made You to be. You honor God by doing what He says you should do. Not what Man says you should do.

Please go to that concert. Your heart and spirit need that so much.
