My minor edits. Very good statement:

“Last week, as Acting Secretary of the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency, I ordered a thorough internal review of the operations, policies and procedures at ALEA. ALEA’s Integrity Unit, comprised of seasoned law enforcement investigators, is currently conducting the review. We will work to complete the review as soon as possible, and will deliver any findings to the appropriate authorities. My priority as ALEA’s Acting Secretary is to carry out the mission of the agency and ensure that our law enforcement officers and support staff honorably provide service, protection, and safety for all of our citizens.”

Subject: ALGOP Dinner Saturday

Good Morning -

The Alabama Council for Excellent Government (ACEGov) and Bentley for Governor are sponsoring two tables at the Alabama Republican Party Winter Dinner.

The Dinner is this Saturday, February 27 in Mobile at the Outlaw Convention Center at 7 pm.

We now have ten seats available at the tables.

The Speaker for the dinner is Mark "Oz" Geist, author of "13 Hours: The Inside Account of What Really Happened in Benghazi".

Gov will attend as the guest of Chairman Lathan and will be seated at the head table with Mr. Geist.

PLEASE consider attending, and let me know ASAP so I can turn in your names.

(PS Many of the Presidential candidates will have booths etc there, and I am told Marco Rubio is schedule to attend as well.)

Thanks so much,

Rebekah

Subject: Possible Email Hack

Good Morning-

I wanted to make you aware of something that we may need to pass on to ISD.

I received an email at 7:45 this morning on my personal gmail account FROM my personal gmail account. I opened the email. It was a link dated September 28 to a pdf on the Secretary of State's website.

Immediately I got an email from Google saying my gmail account had been logged in on a device not recognized. I clicked on the Map showing where the device was located. The location was Tuscaloosa Avenue near Birmingham (Bessemer/Ensley area). I immediately changed my password.

In September, I had looked up information on the SOS's website regarding ACEGov. The pdf link emailed to me was the ACEGov info I had previously pulled two months ago. I seem to recall emailing that information AT THAT TIME to myself.

I'm not sure if this is a hack on the State system, or my gmail or both.

I wanted to make you aware of it, in case more problems are reported.

Thanks so much,
Rebekah

Statement on how Rebekah Mason is paid.

This is the suggested response to Kim Chandler's inquiry. Jennifer can you make sure Carrie and David are aware of Kim's question?

"Rebekah Mason serves in the role of Senior Political Advisor for the Governor's Office. Fair Campaign Practices Act 17-5-7(A) allows for the use of campaign funds "for expenditures that are reasonably related to performing the duties of the Office held". Since 2011, in accordance with the Fair Campaign Practices Act, the Governor's Office has used campaign funds to pay a political consultant within the Governor's Administration. Mason receives campaign funds for her role as Senior Political Advisor. Due to the political nature of some of those duties, the role of Senior Political Advisor is not a taxpayer funded position. Full disclosure of campaign funds will be filed in the next required campaign finance disclosure report."

Hi Kim!

Sorry for the delay in getting an answer to you.

Rebekah Mason serves in the role of Senior Political Advisor for the Governor's Office. The Fair Campaign Practices Act, 17-5-7(A) allows for the use of campaign funds "for expenditures that are reasonably related to performing the duties of the office held." Since 2011, in accordance with the Fair Campaign Practices Act, the Governor has used campaign funds to pay for the position of Senior Political Advisor. The Governor did that both to help with funding his office and to make certain that advice that might relate to a future campaign would be paid by the campaign.

Mason became Senior Political Advisor in 2015 at the beginning of the Governor's second term. Although most all of her duties relate to advising the Governor on matters related to the conduct of his office so that the use of public funds for her position would be appropriate, because of the chance that her advice might be sought on political issues beyond the Governor's official duties, the Governor felt it best to continue paying for the position of Senior Political Advisor with campaign funds.

Mr. Hammett's last day as Chief of Staff is Friday, October 16.

If you need anything else, please let me know.

TIMELINE

January 6, 2016 –

Governor Bentley met with ALEA Secretary Spencer Collier, Investigators Scott Lee, and Jack Wilson late in the afternoon. Governor Bentley had received a threatening correspondence on or around December 28, and was reporting it to Collier, Lee and Wilson. Collier indicated to Governor Bentley he viewed the email as a threat of extortion and indicated to Governor Bentley he was going to investigate the matter. Collier made it clear in the presence of Wilson and Lee that it was Collier who was ordering the investigation, not Governor Bentley.

Before leaving the meeting, Collier reported to the Governor he had been contacted by Baron Coleman who wanted to have a discussion with him. Collier told Governor Bentley Coleman wanted to report “some things Matt Hart had done”. Collier indicated to Governor Bentley he believed Coleman was frightened.

Following that meeting, Governor Bentley met with reporters Kim Chandler and Chuck Dean, David Byrne, Jennifer Ardis and two attorneys by phone to discuss a Lawsuit the Administration was filing against the federal Government regarding the Refugee Resettlement Act. A Press Conference announcing the suit was scheduled for the following day.

Later that evening Governor Bentley contacted Rebekah Mason. During that phone conversation Governor Bentley discussed with Mason the meeting he had with the media that afternoon, as well as the Collier meeting regarding the threatening email. Governor Bentley told Mason he was going to share some confidential information with her. Governor Bentley recounted the conversation he had with Collier regarding the Coleman request. Governor Bentley asked Mason not to share that information with anyone. Mason agreed. Governor Bentley told Mason Collier told him Coleman was scared and that’s why he wanted to talk with Spencer and make a report.

February 2, 2016 –

Media reported that Baron Coleman had filed an affidavit claiming he had received secret Grand Jury testimony in the upcoming Lee County trial from Prosecutor Matt Hart.

February 8, 2016 –

Spencer Collier and David Byrne met with Governor Bentley at 8am in the Governor’s Office. During that meeting Collier and Byrne indicated to Governor Bentley, [Redacted]

At approximately 930am Rebekah Mason met briefly with Governor Bentley. Mason asked Governor Bentley how his meeting was with Collier and Byrne. Governor Bentley recounted the conversation with Mason. Mason strongly advised the Governor to steer clear of any outside involvement in the Lee County trial, lest it distract from the Governor's policy agenda he was launched only a week prior.

February 11, 2016 –

Media reported that Matt Hart had filed a series of affidavits in the Lee County case. One of those affidavits was signed by Spencer Collier, ALEA Secretary. Recalling the conversation earlier in the week, Mason contacted Governor Bentley upon reading the news reports. Mason told Governor Bentley about the report, and that one affidavit was from Collier. Mason asked Governor Bentley if he had heard from Collier since their meeting three days earlier. Governor Bentley said "No". Mason asked if David Byrne had discussed the affidavit with Governor Bentley since the meeting three days earlier. Governor Bentley said "No". Governor Bentley told Mason he was going to call Collier and ask him about the news report.

Later that evening, Governor Bentley called Mason. Governor Bentley told Mason he had spoken to Collier and asked about the affidavit Hart filed signed by Collier. Governor Bentley told Mason, Collier told him that he had reported to Hart that he couldn't sign the original affidavit as Hart had requested. Then Collier told Governor Bentley, that Hart said he would subpoena Collier if he didn't produce an affidavit. Collier told Governor Bentley that Hart told him a Grand Jury was open at 8am the next morning, and he would bring Collier before the Grand Jury for sworn testimony. Governor Bentley recounted to Mason that Spencer was scared. Governor Bentley told Mason that Collier told him, he wrote a second affidavit to appease Hart. Collier told Governor Bentley the second affidavit was "benign" and didn't really say anything of significance.

February 12, 2016 –

Governor Bentley called Spencer Collier to his office. In a meeting Governor Bentley once again asked Collier why he gave an affidavit to Hart, when he had indicated on February 8 that he had not investigated the matter Hart was referring to. Collier once again told Governor Bentley that he was told by Hart that if he did not hand over an affidavit, Hart would bring Collier before a Grand Jury. Governor Bentley specifically asked Spencer if he felt like that was a threat from Hart. Collier answered "Yes".

February 13, 2016 –

Spencer Collier contacted Governor Bentley at 4:57pm. Collier had been contacted by media. Collier asked Governor Bentley if he wanted Collier to respond. Governor Bentley said "No. "

February 16, 2016 –

Governor Bentley contacted Mason on or around 9 am. Governor Bentley indicated to Mason that he had a conversation with or about Collier. Governor Bentley told Mason that Collier had "changed his mind" and was now saying he did NOT feel like he was threatened regarding the affidavit request by Matt Hart. Governor Bentley told Mason he was concerned and troubled by the inconsistency in Collier. Governor Bentley told Mason he was going to call everyone in to his office that day and "get to the bottom of this."

2:30 PM – Governor Bentley met with David Byrne and Joe Espy.

At the point Collier spoke up and said he had some things he wanted to say to the Governor and Mason only.

Those in attendance left the room, except for Mason and Governor Bentley.

Collier told Governor Bentley he had something he needed to share. Collier told Governor Bentley and Mason that he had recently had a conversation with Matt Hart. Collier told the Governor that Hart thought he was a good man, whose heart was in the right place. Collier said Hart told him that Governor Bentley was good he believed, but there were people working with the Governor who had committed felonies. Collier looked at Mason and said, "And Rebekah I believe he was talking about you." Collier said he told Hart that he had done background checks on employees and would know if someone had a prior conviction. Collier said Hart told him these were people who had not yet been convicted. Again, Spencer told Mason "I believe he was talking about you, Rebekah." Mason did not respond.

Governor Bentley asked Collier to explain what he meant. Collier told Governor Bentley he wasn't sure what Hart meant by the statement, but he and his wife Melissa had discussed it and prayed about it the night before and decided Collier needed to tell Governor Bentley and Mason what Hart had said.

Mason asked Collier when Hart made that comment. Collier told Mason the comment was made at 5pm the previous day.

Governor Bentley once again reminded Collier that he had told Collier not to file the affidavit because as Collier had indicated, there had been no investigation. At that time, Collier became restless and fidgety. Collier told Governor Bentley he was afraid of Hart. Collier told Governor Bentley he did not want to get a subpoena. He told Governor Bentley he did not want to testify. Governor Bentley reminded Collier that he had said to the Governor that he felt threatened by Hart.

Collier once again said he did not want to testify, and he told Governor Bentley "You don't want to testify either." Governor Bentley reminded Collier that he would likely be called himself to testify in the upcoming Lee County trial. Collier acted surprised and said, "I forgot about that. That's right. I hadn't thought about that."

Collier then told Governor Bentley "you would be doing this state a service if you got rid of Matt Hart." He told Governor Bentley Hart was a problem and it would be a huge help if Governor Bentley could do something about him.

Collier then told Governor Bentley that Hart had questioned Hal Taylor until midnight the previous day. Collier said he was afraid Hart was going to indict Hal.

Governor Bentley asked Spencer to bring the group back in the office for the meeting.

February 17, 2016 –

Governor Bentley called Collier to his office the morning of February 17. Governor Bentley told Collier he knew he had back surgery scheduled, and he knew he wasn't feeling well.

Governor Bentley told Collier he was going to place him on medical leave for three months for two reasons. 1. He wanted Collier to have his surgery and get well. And 2. He wanted Collier to get off his pain medicine.

Collier was once again apologetic to Governor Bentley and asked if he should resign. Governor Bentley said "No, I want you to come back in three months and get well. "

Governor Bentley told Collier he was placing Stan Stabler as Acting ALEA Secretary, Collier told Governor Bentley he thought that was a great idea. Later than day Collier introduced Stabler to ALEA Personnel as the Acting Secretary.

Collier had a letter in hand for Governor Bentley. He told Governor Bentley he wanted to reassign Hal Taylor to his previous position. Collier asked Governor Bentley if he wanted Collier or Stabler to do it. Governor Bentley told Collier to do it, since it was under his watch.

The two parted ways amicably. In the following weeks, Governor Bentley contacted Collier to check on his recovery from surgery. During one of those conversations Collier asked Governor Bentley if he was going to fire him, and was he going to lose his insurance. Governor Bentley told Collier he wanted him to get well and return to work.

On or around the week of February 22, Stan Stabler came to Governor Bentley's Office and indicated that he had been approached by ALEA personnel and employees regarding concerns about misuse of funds and state resources by Collier. Stabler told Governor Bentley he had reassigned two merit employees and terminated two appointees. Governor Bentley told Stabler to operate the department as he saw fit.

Stabler told Governor Bentley he was reassembling the ALEA Integrity Unit, which had been disassembled under Collier, to begin an internal review of ALEA.

The Integrity Unit concluded its report on or around March 18.

[Redacted] Governor Bentley [Redacted]

March 21, 2016 –

ALEA Released a statement to media indicating an Internal review of ALEA had been completed and had found items of concern including possible misuse of funds. Mason and Ardis met with ALEA PIO Anna Morris to draft the statement from ALEA.

March 22, 2016 –

Collier was terminated from his position as ALEA Secretary. Stabler was appointed to the position.

That evening, Al.com columnist John Archibald released a transcript of a recorded phone call between Governor Bentley and an unidentified person. Archibald identified that person as Mason.

March 23, 2016 –

Collier called a press conference in which he described in detail the tape recorded conversation. Collier gave multiple false accounts of events and conversations that had taken place within the last month. Collier inexplicably extolled the praises of Matt Hart at the press conference. Collier made numerous unfounded allegations against Governor Bentley and Mason in the press conference. Many of those allegations are recounted in the lawsuit filed April 19, 2016.

Rebekah Caldwell Mason

I love the people of this state. We have been through so much together. We have been through some very difficult times. When we went through the tornadoes I was there with you. When you lost your daughters, your sons, your mother or your father I came to you, we cried together and I held your hand.

When you lost your loved one fighting for our nation's Freedoms I was there with you and every family whose son or daughter died for our country. I was there and I held your hand, because you were hurting.

Today I am hurting, not because of a tornado. Not because of war.

But because I made a mistake. In my past, I made human error in good judgment. I have long resolved my past mistake. But now my mistake is made public for everyone to see.

I have dishonored God. I have hurt my wife and my family. I have hurt a friend who only wanted the best for me, and I have hurt her family. I have hurt my church, and I have hurt every one of you. I have hurt our State.

I am hurting now. And I need your prayers. I need your forgiveness.

I have two and half years left in office. I know not everyone will be able to forgive me. I know there will always be criticisms.

But I want to ask you to please find it in your heart to forgive me.

Sunday was Easter, the culmination and the finishing of the work Jesus came to do here on earth.

The Good News about my Salvation, is that because of Jesus, Salvation by Grace covers all my sins. That includes my sins of the past, the present and the future.

That is a testament to what the Gospel really means.

I want to please ask everyone to stop for a moment. Please know there are few facts that are available. And Please just know that with every internet story, every post, every comment you make make – those are hurting people.

Before you post, ask yourself is this beneficial or is this destructive to a real person.

It's time we stop. We need to pray. And we need to let others and our state heal.

I know there are those of you who will never be able to forgive me.

But for those of you who will, I just want to ask you again to please pray for me. Pray for all those I have hurt. And please continue to pray for our state. I love you all. God Bless The Great State of Alabama.

Greg,

I spoke to County Commission Chairman, Kim Ballard and Commissioner Roy Moore today concerning Paul M. Grist State Park. The Dallas County Commission is very interested in taking over the operation of the park. We had a good conversation concerning such things as them taking over the utilities and the fact that all equipment and inventory would be removed. They asked how the liability would be shifted from the state to the county. I told them that I could not answer that question but that a proposal would be a starting point. They are sending a proposal that we should have in hand by Friday October 23.

Bentley Joint Statement

DRAFT

First Lady

I am grateful to the kind and good-hearted people of Alabama for allowing me to serve as your First Lady for the last five years. It has been a joy and privilege to serve you and to work together on issues close to my heart such as Domestic Violence Awareness and support for Alabama's Foster Children. I want to thank you all for your continued prayers of support for me, for my family and for Robert. The erroneous and unsubstantiated media reports of the last few weeks have been very hurtful to our family and to [the Caldwell and Mason Families] [others families] as well. We ask for your continued prayers in the days and weeks to come. It has been an honor to serve this great state as your First Lady.

Governor

I appreciate the prayers and support of all of you who have reached out in loving kindness to me, to Dianne, our family and our staff over the last few weeks. I want to thank Dianne for her years of service to the people of this state. She has been a gracious First Lady and our state will be forever grateful for her service. False and misleading media reports over the last few weeks have done much harm to many families. Please continue to keep these families and our great state in your prayers.

Gov:

Below is a DRAFT statement based on what we discussed. I have copied Rebekah so she can weigh in as well. Let me know if you have any additional thoughts. We can provide this to Cliff and an update to Al.Com.

"Governor Bentley believes that National Guardsmen should be armed when on state active duty. (I am confirming the actual title with the NG) The Alabama National Guard leadership is reviewing the policies and procedures for arming Alabama National Guardsmen, to make sure that they and the citizens of Alabama are protected. The Governor has asked General Smith to develop a plan that will allow Guardsmen to be armed and safely protect themselves and Alabama citizens from any source of danger."

After all of the endless shilling that you've done for his tax plan, you had to post the nauseatingly syrupy story about Bentley reading "Go Set A Watchman" on the state plane, too? You are so far up Bentley's ass that I swear I can see your forehead every time he opens his mouth. Despite those disappointing truths and the fact that you think my Confederate ancestors are traitorous bastards, I hope you are doing well, my friend.

The Honorable Robert Bentley
Alabama Council for Excellent Government
Post Office Box 1167
Montgomery, Alabama 36101

Dear Governor Bentley,

As per our conversation on Saturday, I will be taking a leave of absence, effective immediately, from the Alabama Council for Excellent Government to work on the Alabama Jobs Foundation project. This effort will last 2-5 months, depending upon AJF's ability to place their proposed amendment on the November, 2015 ballot.

I hope that, at some point, you might allow me to rejoin the ACEGov team.

Sincerely,

Randy Wilhelm

I wonder when exactly he is gonna become "fair" - this article includes a discussion about whether the governor should be kicked out of the GOP. He didn't initiate it ("Matt Murphy"/Robert Ray did) but he still chose to put it out there for consumption to his audience.

Cliff doesn't have to put stuff like this on his page. He's thumbing his nose at us.

Governor,

We just had a call which included Rebekah, Cooper, Heath and me. The main topic was how best to focus on getting our social media moving forward. Rebekah and Heath agreed to work with Stoneridge to put together a two page action plan designed to drive our friends, supporters, etc. to the ACEGov website. With the possibility of a special session looming, we would want to concentrate our resources on having a big impact. Of course, that means more fundraising. I will forward to you a plan for the next fundraising phase.

Governor: This article is not fair and balanced, as Cliff Sims promised. Note: pointed criticism and links to even more criticisms present in the article. Contrast this with the coverage on the same page given to Terry Lathan's "suggestion" that your plan be rejected - and that your plan is not necessary at all - which was emailed all over the state.

There are no critical comments are links at all in the Lathan puff piece.

Cliff Sims will always be like this.

Greg,

I certainly don't want to get at loggerheads over this letter, but it's been almost four weeks since we asked for something we could give to Rob Burton. I know these are busy times, but it would be appreciated if, somehow, the Governor could move a little higher up on your priority list. Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help expedite this matter. Thank you.

Here's a couple of places she managed to work in some inflammatory language:

"He once again threatened to call legislators back to Montgomery if they fail to enact his tax increases" (Emphasis added)

And here:

"The Governor's original suggestion to raise the tax from 1.5 percent to 4 percent garnered little support." (Emphasis added).

She knows what she is doing here. This was written through gritted teeth.

Gov's position has and will continue to be that raising $541M in new, fair modest taxes is the only solution to the budget crisis that will begin October 1.

In light of these discussions, I want us to be especially vigilant about watching where any future possible contributions may come from.

Already I know of some journalists who are speculating that ACEGov will take contributions from PCI, especially since a 501C4 isn't required by law to report.

As we all know, ACEGov's articles clearly state no gambling money will be accepted. But as we know, sometimes contributions can be disguised.

I just wanted us to be aware of the chatter regarding ACEGov and remain forever mindful of wolves in sheep's clothing.

Budget Crisis Action Plan

From : Rebekah Caldwell Mason <rebekahcmason@gmail.com>

Subject : Budget Crisis Action Plan

 1 attachment

To : GRB <robertjbentley@comcast.net>

Attached you will find a Budget Crisis Action Plan for your review and approval. These are specific "actionable items" we can implement and execute right away. In the attachment I have outlined the purpose and intent of the action, the goals and the members of your staff that would be assigned to carry out the action.

Please read and review these items. There certainly are many things we are already currently doing that are not included on this list. And of course you may have additional thoughts and suggestions to what I have compiled.

Please let me know if there are any changes or additions you would like to make. Once you have approved this plan, I would ask that you ask your respective staff to carry out the actions they have been assigned.

Thank you,

Love,

Budget Crisis Action Plan

April/ May

1. Budget Crisis Tours

Continue targeted tours and speaking engagements at various counties. Governor continues to make personal visits to counties.

Priority Emphasis: “Real people” personally affected by potential budget cuts (State Park worker, Trooper, family who’s loved one may lose vital benefits etc.)

Goal: To place Governor in a comfortable setting where he can personally hear from and talk with the actual people whose lives will be significantly impacted by the cuts forced by the Legislature’s Clouse/ Orr Budget. Putting a face with the budget cuts makes it personal and relatable to Alabamians and decision-makers.

Secondary Emphasis would be personal appearances to Chamber groups, community and business leaders.

Legislators would continue to be invited to the speaking engagements/events in their respective districts.

Staff: Zach, Jennifer, Press Team, Legislative Team

2. Budget Crisis Cabinet Press Conferences

Cabinet Heads will hold individual press conferences highlighting and expressing concern about the potential cuts to their respective agencies.

Priority Emphasis: Those agencies that effects the greatest number of Alabamians, families, children and quality of life (DHR, DMH, etc.)

Goal: To add more voices of credibility and support to that of the Governor and to emphasize the stark reality of the effects of the Clouse Orr Budget.

Staff: Jon Barganier, Jennifer, Yasamie

3. Regular Conference Calls with Local Elected Officials

Similar to natural disaster response, Governor holds a series of conference calls with local elected leaders such as city council members and county commissioners. Also invited to join the conference calls may be Legislators. Governor holds informative calls with a few select counties at a time, focusing on the potential cuts that are specific to the counties. Governor conducts these calls in the same manner he would any disaster briefing. In this case, he explains the Budget Crisis situation, his solution and the detrimental effects of the Clouse Orr Budget to their specific counties. Governor asks those local elected leaders to encourage and persuade their local Legislators to pass Governor's Revenue package.

Priority Emphasis: Counties where support needs to be strengthened and counties hardest hit by the Clouse Orr Budget cuts.

Goal: To educate locals most effected by the Clouse Orr Budget and to empower and encourage locals to contact their Legislators.

This will also present ample external messaging opportunities.

Staff: Zach, Wesley, Derek, Ross

4. Rapid Response

Communications Office personnel will continually monitor media outlets (online, social, print and broadcast) for erroneous or false reports, comments or questions as they apply to the Budget Crisis and/or the Governor's message.

Communication's Office Personnel will contact media outlets immediately for clarification, correction and direction.

Communication's Office Personnel may use the Governor's online, and/or social media to respond or deliver a message for mass consumption.

Goal: To preserve the integrity of the Governor's message that his solution is the best option in this Budget Crisis, and to ensure media deliver a factual and fair representation of the Governor's message. It is also necessary to respond to other voice of dissention and opposition.

Staff: Jennifer, Yasamie, Daniel, Kayla

5. Personal Meetings with Legislators

Governor will schedule and hold regular meeting with individual Legislators to educate and convince them that his solution is the best option in this Budget Crisis. Governor will hold these meetings either in his Official office or his Legislative Office.

Goal: To convince and persuade Legislators to support and vote for the Governor's Revenue Bills.

Staff: Ross, Wesley and Derek

6. Budget Crisis Press Briefings

Governor will hold Press Briefings with media to update and answer questions regarding the Budget Crisis. These may be held in a media gaggle-style format or in a more formal setting such as the Press Office hallway. Briefings may be held as needed, depending on the actions of the Legislature and any developing events that take place.

Goal: Governor is accessible, and engaged in the ongoing Budget Crisis and to enable the Governor to steer and direct the conversation as it applies to the budget crisis. Will also allow Governor opportunity to refute or respond to any anticipated negative or false propaganda that may be posted by outside media outlets.

Staff: Jennifer, Yasamie, Daniel, Kayla, Jamie

REBEKAH's CHANGES:

After careful consideration of options regarding the closure of 31 Driver's License offices in Alabama's rural counties, I have asked that an Alabama Law Enforcement Agency examiner be provided one day a month to service those counties effected. On Thursday, I met with Congresswoman Terri Sewell, who represents eight of the impacted counties, to inform her of my decision. I recognize the closure of the 31 driver license offices effects mostly rural areas of the state. To suggest the closure of the driver license offices is a racial issue is simply not true, and to suggest otherwise should be considered an effort to promote a political agenda. Alabama has provided numerous options by which citizens can obtain a voter ID, and the closure of the Driver's License offices should not be seen as a hinderance to someone's ability to do that.

The budget passed by the state Legislature required many executive branch departments to make difficult business decisions regarding how they will allocate their limited resources in Fiscal Year 2016. As the Governor of Alabama, I have the responsibility to run state government within the budget provided by the state legislature.

In 2008, Wynton M. Blount Cultural Park and the Alabama Shakespeare Festival Finance Authority deeded the Wynfield Estate located in Montgomery to the State of Alabama.

Before the state received the land, The Wynfield served as the residence of Winton "Red" Blount and his wife Carolyn S. Blount. The Wynfield property is approximately 103 acres of land located in Montgomery, adjoining the grounds of the Alabama Shakespeare Festival.

On the land sits a 12,336 square-foot Georgian-style home. The deed restricts the use of the house to serve as a residence of the governors of Alabama, to serve as a cultural venue for consistent with those held at the Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts or Alabama Shakespeare Festival, and to support economic development.

The first part of the house was built in 1964 and designed by the New York architect Mott Schmidt. In 1998, the conservatory, which adjoins the house, and a chapel near the house were built - both designed by Alabama native, Bobby McAlpine.

A grave yard is located on the grounds where Winton and Carolyn Blount are buried. While members of the Blount family may place a marker in the cemetery, the deed restricts any additional burials in the cemetery. The Alabama Department of Finance continues to maintain the property. Currently, Governor Bentley uses The Wynfield for hosting public events. He enjoys fishing on weekends at the small lake located on the property and each summer he grows a garden of peas, okra and especially watermelon on the grounds.

In addition to the photos of the beach house we also have this little gem we can add to the Beach house section of the website.

DRONE VIDEO!

A friend of mine (John Oldshue) is starting an aerial photo/video business and he captured flyover video of the beach house.

It's awesome!

I had Stan look at it for Security reasons and he had no problem with us posting it.

Can we embed the video clip at the bottom of the Beach house section? I love being as forthcoming and transparent as possible about the property.

Also the Vimeo password is governor1.

As you all may (or may not) know, this is "Sunshine Week", a week set aside to focus attention on Open Meetings Laws. (Don't be impressed, I just learned this myself.)

Given Gov's demonstrated dedication to total transparency, it may not be a bad idea for us to social media message a couple of "tweets" from Gov acknowledging this and in his usual fashion, thanking hardworking Journalists for their dedication to reporting what the public has a right to know.

Keeping in mind Gov had a record of going above and beyond transparency, voluntarily releasing his tax returns every single year. And he signed new legislation last year (?) strengthening Alabama's Open Records Laws.

Here's an Op Ed I came across with some background:

Tweet 2 -Thanks to Alabama's seasoned journalists & their efforts to hold public officials accountable. We are all better for it."

Tweet 3 - Each year I release my personal tax returns, and as always Flight Logs, etc can be found here LINK.

Sen Orr:

The personnel issue about layoffs was never mentioned. Except when I clearly stated that job separations prevented layoffs. You agreed to assist with any legislation needed to correct the problem regarding reclassifying employees and we are having that bill drafted. I hope that you will honor your commitment. We checked with other media outlets and they clearly understood that the reference to oil changes was a past practice that we inherited. We are gathering the receipts of local maintenance to clearly show that is not the practice.

I challenge you or LFO to produce any document that shows an executive staff member of ALEA was paid OT. I cannot control the practices of previous agencies in regards to OT. However since Jan 1, not a single Executive staff member has been paid OT. We will also gather those documents to show you.

Sen... You took the time to chastise and lecture me over practices of past administrations and yes, you mentioned oil changes. I am going to be abundantly clear, I have served this state in one capacity or another for 20 years. 11 of those years was as a line officer in law enforcement. You are NOT going to speak to me that way. Your tone was completely out of line and it speaks to why problems can no longer be resolved in the Legislature.

I am always available to talk. You have managed to call in the past when seeking grant funding, so a call to resolve a misunderstanding isn't unreasonable. As opposed to running to the media, the professional thing to do would have been to discuss this with me.

I am well aware of the funding issue the state is facing and I know it is difficult times. However, I served in the legislature voluntarily just as you do. Please keep in mind that you signed up to take on these problems. In conclusion, I DO NOT work for you. However, we will gather all relevant information and provide it your office.

Spencer:

I'll not resort to besmirching your character for truth telling as you've seen fit to do to me. And, I will always want to be the first to apologize for any misunderstanding that I may ever have in a communication. (And, as you will recall, I did not raise the oil change question though I had a passel of similar questions which I could have raised but did not want to do so in a public setting.)

But so you know, I had talked to a senior LFO staffer (who was present at the hearings) before the interview yesterday (initiated by reporter) to verify your comments were as I heard them. My recollections were confirmed.

Subsequent to your e-mail, I questioned today Rep. Collins, Rep. K. Johnson, Rep. Shedd who were all in attendance at the time the exchange occurred. Their individual recollections all comport with what I heard. I also asked a Chief of Staff Philip Bryan as to his recollection. Confirmed as the same. I have also queried today a staffer with the Governor's office who was in attendance—confirmed—same understanding.

That leads me to believe that you perhaps did not articulate what you thought you were saying. Each one of the above individuals unanimously agrees with what they (and I) heard. Further, when pressed about the lack of action on changing the oil change policy, your response was to say you could not terminate those working in the vehicle maintenance department because of the ALEA enabling legislation. (I would think any change to the oil policy would have been one of the shining moments of the day in making sure every listener knew the culture has indeed changed and this was an example.)

In addition today, I spent time on the telephone with the Personnel Office regarding the stated inability to layoff (or reassign) individuals which you blamed on the legislation/legislature. They categorically state that you can layoff (or reassign) anyone you choose under the current law. Further, after questioning, it was represented by you that top managerial staff were not receiving overtime pay. The Personnel Department records indicate otherwise—even for FY16. It would be good to know if this information is incorrect.

You insinuate that somehow my frustration with you is personal. Nothing could be further from the truth. The truth is that we have tremendous financial challenges in our state and, as you so rightly and perfectly indicated, there is a culture change that needs to occur within ALEA. I think you would agree this culture change needs to occur all across state government. But, the lack of dollars will not allow us to slowly change this culture. It must be quick and expeditious.

You've got a difficult job and a large agency to run that has been thrown together. I understand that. I thank you for your service to our state and encourage you to present whatever legislative solutions might be necessary or possible to help you run your agency in the best manner possible. As always, if we need to talk, I welcome the opportunity.

Below is a story that was briefly posted on WHNT's website today. The story is no longer online because the station fact checked your accusations and determined that it was wrong. We have not always agreed on issues, but I have always respected you and treated you professionally. However, your statement in this story is completely untrue. I vividly recall the dialogue regarding vehicle maintenance. I mentioned the vehicle maintenance practices of PAST administrations as a sign of the culture ALEA inherited, but was changing. I clearly explained that in the past, Troopers would drive to Montgomery or other larger Trooper Posts with auto shops for routine maintenance. However, I was also abundantly clear in stating that practice has been abolished. I specifically said Troopers now use a Wright Express Card for oil changes, tire repair, etc. I even went as far to mention that this practice was beneficial to the private sector and a cost saver for ALEA. I further added that moving forward, ALEA planned to contract engine repair service with businesses. At this point, I distinctly recall that you were continuously in and out of the meeting. At one point, you returned and chastised me in a minutes long diatribe about "driving to Montgomery for oil changes". I took your chastising out of respect for you, the committee and the legislature itself. It was pretty obvious that you only heard part of the dialogue. Misunderstanding in a committee setting is one thing, but intentionally fostering something untrue to the media is another.

In the media story, you also mention excess employees such as mechanics and changing their work assignment. Act 2013-67, voted for by you and sponsored in the House by Rep. Mike Ball specifically protects the job status of all persons employed by legacy agencies and state personnel rules have to be followed to change merit employees classification.

I have always made myself available to you whether in Montgomery or even traveling to Deatur. Additionally, I was always responsive to your request for homeland security funding for first responders. A simple call to clarify if you misunderstood would have been the professional thing to do. However, you chose to further something untrue in the media. That is below you and dignity of your office.

trooper patch

MADISON COUNTY, Ala. (WHNT) – Budget hearings brought a number of state agencies before Alabama lawmakers as they made their case for more money from the general fund.

Alabama Law Enforcement Agency (ALEA) secretary Spencer Collier went before the committee requesting more than $20 million for the next fiscal year.

"It came up in those hearings that our state troopers were driving from north Alabama, Dothan, or Mobile to Montgomery just to get an oil change in one of their trooper vehicles," said Senator Arthur Orr.

It was news to Orr, and a clear sign of inefficiency in the middle of a budget crisis.

Collier explained it had long been the regular practice for quite some time.

"This was for oil changes," stressed Senator Orr. "That's what infuriated quite frankly, a lot of legislators."

"They're not hired to be driving cars back and forth to be worked on, their primary purpose is public safety," said Representative Mike Ball.

Years as a state trooper makes Rep. Ball all too familiar with road tripping for regular maintenance, he calls it wasteful.

"It would show you saved money on your vehicle costs, what it doesn't factor is the cost of taking that trooper off the road," said Rep. Ball.

Collier told lawmakers he continued to use the same people because he didn't want to fire longtime mechanics in Montgomery, but that wasn't satisfactory for Sen. Orr, the outgoing chair of the general fund committee.

"Wouldn't you reassign that person and give them something else to do? Perhaps a lateral shift to the Department of Corrections or some other state agency that might need someone, a mechanic type job?"

Collier said the consolidation of law enforcement agencies under ALEA has proven to be efficient. But a problem with the consolidation, he said, is it protects jobs that are no longer needed.

As a result, Collier says, ALEA is waiting for people to leave or retire. The Montgomery mechanics are a prime example of an occupation the agency no longer needs but is waiting to be phased out.

"To see this culture of doing things the same old way we've always done them was befuddling and quite frankly frustrating for many legislators," said Sen. Orr.

In an article from our news partner Al.com, Collier told lawmakers it is 'not happening anymore' but in an interview with WHNT News 19, Senator Orr says Collier is waiting to phase out those Montgomery mechanics.

Lawmakers return to Montgomery for the 2016 legislative session on February 2.

Governor Abbott Statement On The Passing Of Justice Scalia

AUSTIN - Following the news of Justice Scalia's passing, Governor Abbott released the following statement:

"Justice Antonin Scalia was a man of God, a patriot, and an unwavering defender of the written Constitution and the Rule of Law. He was the rock who turned away so many attempts to depart from and distort the Constitution. His fidelity to the Constitution set an unmatched example, not just for judges and lawyers, but for all Americans. We mourn his passing, and we pray that his successor on the Supreme Court will take his place as a champion for the written Constitution and the Rule of Law. Gov. His and I extend our deepest condolences to his family, and we will keep them in our thoughts and prayers."

All- Forgive me if You all are already working on this..But I would like for Gov to go to some of the hardest hit areas to tour storm/flooding damage tomorrow (Sat). (I have not had a convo wit him about this.) I would like for him to at least fly over the areas, and possibly meet with Mayors, Legislators, Media. For logistics and for simplicity, perhaps these meetings can take place at airports. I would give my very strong recommendation that he do this Saturday. Gov's signature move is being on top of storms situations immediately. I think seeing him lead in this issue is extremely important. And it reminds everyone of the Gov they've always known. Please let me know what I can do to help make this happen. Thanks! And Merry Christmas!

I'm in Georgia, what is the hardest hit areas?

Dec 25, 2015 16:28:38

Elba, Eufala, north Alabama.

Dec 25, 2015 16:29:18

From Trotter Derek

These are the counties Art said: Coffee, Barbour, Chambers, Russell, Covington and Houston. They're watching N AL and will be assessing damage tomorrow

2015 16:30:11

From Ardis

The biggest concern for Art is Elba and Geneva Co. He said the Corps is concerned about the levees there.

Dec 25, 2015 16:44:38

Dec 25, 2015 17:13:51

From Trotter Derek [REDACTED] Gov just texted that he's going down tomorrow afternoon. Is Art going to be coordinating the stops or do we know yet where he'll be going? Want to make sure we get the appropriate legislators invited. 2015 17:13:51

From Helton Wesley [REDACTED] Yeah, if I could have times and locations I will let the house folks know Dec 25, 2015 17:24:42

From Barganier Jon [REDACTED] Just talked to art... He's not sure there will be anything to see tomorrow down there. Wonder if we can wait until morning and assess the damage across the state and figure out where the most needed areas are... Thoughts? 015 17:32:11

From Barganier Jon [REDACTED] If he's waiting until tomorrow afternoon, he could make the call on where to visit once better info is in 015 17:33:05

From Zacher [REDACTED] We had roads washed out and several trees down where I am. And the city is already fixing them. Dec 25, 2015 17:35:24

From Zacher [REDACTED] Same in madison, but there are some homes with flood damage Dec 25, 2015 17:37:24

From Zacher [REDACTED] We need to keep an eye on the tornadoes in Jefferson in Chilton County. Dec 25, 2015 17:45:43

From Mason Rebekah [REDACTED] I would suggest we do what we've done in the past with storm situations and SOEs.. I would suggest we set up a Conference call in the morning with Art, Jeff, Gov etc. They can give us a report. We can assess everything then as far as damage etc and make a plan for where Gov can go. How does that sound to everyone? Dec 25, 2015 17:45:51

From Helton Wesley [REDACTED] With all of these tornado warnings popping up, we may want to wait and see how the night plays out too Dec 25, 2015 17:46:39

From Barganier Jon [REDACTED] Perfect. I'll set up the conf call if you'd like me to. 5, 2015 17:46:45

As far as I can tell, the pay raise issue has mostly been coming from the House at this point. My only hesitation is getting us in a negative posture that could affect the prison bill. Not saying for sure that it would but something to consider.

Governor, there is nothing you need to do. The ball is in my court. We are ready to pull the trigger on filing the formation certificate. The only thing I want to do first is to obtain the informal opinion letter back from the Ethics Commission staff. I am trying to go see them tomorrow to obtain that. I would not ordinarily feel like we need to get that before we file the formation document but we did make one change between our initial discussions with them and where we are headed. That is that we originally told them no public official or employee would be on the Board; however, we now have two board members who are public employees, so I want to make sure they address that for us. To be sure, I don't see having them on the Board as a problem (since they don't report to you) but that was a change from our original communication with them, so I want to address that with them directly and include it in our informal opinion letter. I hope this makes sense.

Did you see the Matt Murphy
cliff sims convo on the govs savings claims?

They're trying to discredit what your office is saying? Is there a way to get ahead of it?

No, I'll send this to Jennifer &

Good Morning -

Doing some research on the cyber bullying/harassment/stalking statutes in Alabama and what they do and do not cover.

Do any of you recall March 2015 Defamation Legislation that was introduced?

Can we find out:

1. What this legislation did 2. Who sponsored it. 3. Can that bill be retooled and/or reintroduced this year? I feel sure Gov would throw his strong support.

Thanks,
RCM

One more edit, actually in ALL CAPS.

The budget impacts to ALEA are a direct result of the Legislature's failure to adequately fund state agencies. During the 2015 Regular Session and two special sessions, Governor Bentley proposed budget solutions that would not have negatively impacted state services. The Governor is concerned about every portion of Alabama being impacted by the budget cuts, and will continue to work WITH THE LEGISLATURE AS BEFORE to find solutions to solve our budget shortfalls.

An important question should be asked of Senator Sanders: Did Senator Sanders vote for increased revenue to adequately fund ALEA? He did not.

Jennifer,

I'm doing a short story on Hank Sanders presser's today regarding DL closures.

In the stops, he and others essentially argued that once monthly service is inadequate.

I'd like to get a response from governor's or ALEA. I've copied Anna on this email.

Best,
Kim Chandler

I like that response. Also, we shared with legislators multiple times the impacts of budget cuts. I distinctly remember a document that we handed out or emailed out that said with the budget passed by the house to the senate that 31 DL offices would close.

During the 2015 Regular Session and two special sessions, Governor Bentley proposed budget solutions that would not have negatively impacted state services. The Governor is concerned about every portion of Alabama being impacted by the budget cuts, and will continue to work toward solutions to solve our budget shortfalls.

An important question should be asked of Senator Sanders: Did Senator Sanders vote for increased revenue to adequately fund ALEA? He did not.

Jennifer,

I'm doing a short story on Hank Sanders presser's today regarding DL closures.

In the stops, he and others essentially argued that once monthly service is inadequate.

I'd like to get a response from governor's or ALEA. I've copied Anna on this email.

Best,
Kim Chandler

Hey Friends -

If you (or someone you know) would like to attend ALGOP's Luncheon with Scott Walker at Talladega on Saturday, August 22 please let me know.

The Alabama Council for Excellent Government (ACEGov) is sponsoring a table. There are only 8 seats available. Please let me know YES or NO by FRIDAY so I can let ALGOP know and possibly offer the seats elsewhere.

Thanks so much,

Subject: Next Line of Attacks - Help Please

Good Morning -

I wanted to pass along some information I've gotten regarding some upcoming sharp criticisms and "attacks" we can see concerning Governor and his Revenue proposals.

It's my understanding there will be a number of articles questioning the taxpayer expenses incurred by the Executive Branch, particularly the Governor's Office. I'm told everything is being examined including, travel, reimbursements, salaries, Security Detail, vehicles, state plane etc.

It is my strong recommendation that we compile lists, comparisons etc of the Governor's Office expenses, how much we've saved over the last four years etc and any other information that shows the Governor's Office is "living within its means".

Jon - can we please begin compiling that information as quickly as possible?

Jennifer, I'm know we've had several questions and inquiries over the last several months along these lines. Perhaps we can pull from those files as well.

No matter how far fetched or absurd this line of attacks may seem to us, the bottom line is always Perception. And in this case the story line will be "Governor is trotting out a $541 Million tax burden on the people of this state while he lives like a king.."

We've already seen a version of this last week in Mary Sell's Trooper article.

As you all know each Monday evening/Tuesday brings a new line of orchestrated attacks on Gov. I don't expect this week to be any different.

We can always win on facts, which are on our side.

Thank you all for any help or assistance you can lend in being proactive to help Gov.

Thanks so much,

Rebekah

ou all may have heard that Mike and Del are having a Press Conference Monday to discuss " budget reform initiatives".

ou all may have heard by now but I wanted to share what I've learned about that.

ve been told it's " Smoke and mirrors - earmarks and budget reform commission to study and make commendations next year on the best way to solve structural budget problems."

n told Mike wanted to do it, and it's his idea, Del doesn't want to do it but is going along.

Attachments: Sherry A. Quirk 3.9.16 (00659260x9D9DD).docx

Below is the verbiage drafted that would be sent from you to Sherry Quirk, Executive VP and General Counsel at TVA:

Dear Ms. Quirk:

In response to TVA's February 17, 2016 notice that it is considering declaring the 1600 acre Bellefonte nuclear facility site near Hollywood Alabama surplus and entertaining its sale, we favor such action so long as it is sold to someone who will complete the two nuclear units at the site.

Completion of these units is key to Alabama's future. Finishing these plants will generate 8,000 to 10,000 prevailing wage construction jobs during each year of the peak five-year construction period and then approximately 2,400 high pay permanent jobs for skilled workers during the likely 60 year operating life of these plants. There is no likely Alabama project which would generate this amount of economic development.

Moreover, this will be the largest nuclear facility ever constructed in the United States and will insure that Alabama residents and industries have a reliable carbon free source of power at a reasonable cost for the foreseeable future. With TVA and other generators being forced to close their Alabama coal plants, it would not be prudent or fair to the residents of Alabama not to secure this source of power. We understand that the plans submitted to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission already require the most advanced safety measures. TVA has invested almost $6 billion in these partially completed facilities. It would be irresponsible to let this investment go to waste simply because TVA does not have the need or ability to complete these facilities.

We are aware that at least one private party is interested in acquiring this site and completing these units. We urge TVA to declare the site surplus and either offer it only to bidders who propose to complete the facilities or to give priority to such bidders. We do not favor TVA selling this site for residential or industrial use.

Dictated by David Byrne

Jennifer, the answers I am about to give are to the best of my knowledge. Please ensure that you check this information for accuracy with Rebekah Mason.

To my knowledge, Rebekah receives a salary from a corporation entitled RCM, and a monthly amount from the Governor's campaign account in furtherance of the mission of his office and to promote good government. A portion of Rebekah's time is in a volunteer capacity (the exact percentage I don't know).

Another source of this information might be available through the Honorable Bobby Segall. Do not contact Mr. Segall without express permission of Rebekah Mason.

Following back up on this inquiry. In addition to Rebekah Mason, the Governor has one volunteer in the Governor's Office. She does not have decision making authority and volunteers her time to answer phones and carry out administrative tasks in the Governor's Office. She is retired, but has a personal services contract with PowerSouth.

If you need anything else, please let me know.

"Today's meeting between Rev. Jesse Jackson, Secretary of State John Merrill and other community leaders went well. Hearing concerns of Alabamians is a top priority for Governor Bentley. Several issues were discussed in the meeting, including the closure of 31 ALEA satellite offices. Governor Bentley and Secretary Merrill explained the options for citizens to receive a photo id in order to vote. The Governor assured the group that the closures have no impact on a citizens ability to receive a photo id in order to vote."
